SAY M'FAYDEN INTERFERED IN SECOND DISTRICT

First District Leader Brings Wrath Upon Himself From Kelly Faction

Peace does not reign among the Republicans of the Second district, although a compromise was effected at the caucus last night so that there was no clash between the Northey and Kelly forces. The Kellyites are sore because the assistant city clerk agreed to the compromise and it will probably be six months before he can square himself with the voters who were willing to follow him.

The workers of the Kelly faction also have a stick in pickle for Alderman Malcolm MacFayden of the First district. They accuse the latter of having taken the part of A. J. Northey and of having asked some of the voters in the district to support Northey in case there was a contest last night. Of all crimes in politics the most heinous is for one leader to interfere in another district. Alderman MacFayden denies that he addressed anyone in this dispute but members of the Kelly faction will not accept his denial.

Last night more than 175 voters who favor the Kelly faction were about the four corners between Broad and Lafayette streets, in Gregory street where the Second District club rooms are located. When the word was passed that there was to be no contest these voters were very much disappointed. They had expected to beat Northey and his friends and had come out with the intention.

Prominent among the Kelly forces was the basketball player, Joseph D. Keating, who has lately been taking an active part in politics in the district. It was first reported that Mr. Keating got on the delegate ticket but he had but one choice for the ticket and that was John T. King. The latter with Walter L. Ellwood and James Wood were the delegates named, as told in another column.

Man Found Dead on Railroad May Have Been Local Resident

New Haven, Aug. 22—A man's body was found beside the railroad tracks in West Haven today. In the clothes were these addresses, among others, Albert Zuroski, 28 Baswick avenue, Bridgeport, and 161 Burnell street, (no city given).

Clothing had the laundry mark "J. E." Apparently the man was track-walking when hit by an express from Boston.

George Botright resides at 23 Baswick avenue. It could not be learned there today that any lodger there, or it may have been a lodger there, or it may have been King himself who was killed, according to the suggestion of persons here, for he left early in the spring to live at a seashore resort near Milford. He has not been seen at the Remington plant where he was employed since May 23. The initials "J. E." may easily have been mistaken for "J. K."

LABORERS HELD FOR THEFT.
Joe Logan of 47 Hallett street and Lorenzo Monte of Avon park, construction laborers employed by the Connecticut Co., were arrested by Detectives Curry and Holbrook today charged with "stealing" 15 bags of cement and three bags of nails from the company where they are employed.

DOCTORS ARE "BABYING" ON BIG QUESTION

Immediately after luncheon the members of the group took up the question of whether or not the schools of the county should be opened at the regular time.

The matter of towns quarantining against each other was also discussed. County Health Officer George E. Hill, who presided, said in the luncheon hour: "I am not qualified to give an opinion on the medical end of this question; that is up to the physicians and other sanitary experts."

"There is no doubt that public sentiment is in favor of it. About half the towns in the county have adopted this measure."

Those who attended the meeting were Mr. Hill, Dr. Sophian, Dr. E. A. McLellan, Bridgeport; Dr. G. F. Lewis, Stratford; Dr. S. Fairchild, Trumbull; Dr. W. S. Randall, Huntington; Dr. A. W. Klein, Greenwich; S. B. Hayes, Monroe; G. B. Beers, Easton; Dr. E. H. Smith, Redding; Dr. W. H. Kiernan, Newbury; Dr. W. J. Tracy, Norwalk; Dr. G. A. Shelton, Shelton; Dr. Frederick Powers, Westport; Dr. W. T. Nagle, Fairfield; Dr. F. S. Curtis, Brookfield; Dr. E. J. O'Shaughnessy, New Canaan; Dr. G. H. Noyes, Darien; Dr. E. B. Rowell, Stamford; Dr. G. E. Lemmer, Danbury, and Dr. J. T. Black of the state board of health.

SCHOOL OPENING DELAYED.
New Haven, Aug. 22—The opening of the New Haven public schools was fixed today for September 18 instead of the 5th, the school committee hoping the infantile paralysis will be on the decrease by that date.

Plague Gains in New York.
New York, Aug. 22—Every borough in Greater New York reported a slight gain in the epidemic of infantile paralysis today. During the 24 hours ending at 10 o'clock this morning, the deaths reported were 39 and the new cases 118. During the preceding 24 hours 32 children died and 92 new cases were reported.

New Cases in Boston.
Boston, Aug. 22—After an apparent check in the spread of infantile paralysis in the state for several days, 18 cases were reported up to noon today to the state department of health, making a total of 129 since August 1. Officials of the department said the situation had now reached a stage approaching alarm and that there was no reason to fear an extensive outbreak.

Trolley In Stratford Runs Down and Kills Fractious Cart Horse

(Special to The Farmer)
Stratford, Aug. 22—A dappled gray horse, one of a team, and valued at $250, was killed at 11:45 last night by a trolley car in charge of Motor-man Eldred and Conductor Hicks in Main street near Judson Place. The horse was owned by S. B. Terry, a contractor, who resides at Stratford avenue and Beardsley Lane.

Mr. Terry has the contract for the carting of trap rock and sand for the Connecticut Co., which is repairing its tracks on Main street. The teams are employed day and night. Last night the team was bringing a load of trap rock on the trolley tracks. The driver whose name could not be learned today, was unable to control one animal. Despite the shouts of the driver a trolley car coming down Main street from Stratford Center ran down and killed the animal.

Traffic was delayed for nearly an hour. The Connecticut Co. had to use a derrick to remove the animal. It was conveyed on a flat car to the car barns on Stratford avenue. The other animal escaped injury. The matter has been reported to State Policeman Rowe H. Wheeler who said that he will make an investigation tomorrow.

Hit By Shell Fragment, French Canadian Loses Use of Mother Tongue

Col. C. J. Mersereau, a French Canadian who went with the first contingent sent by Canada to the front, spoke French and a little English. He has returned knowing no French, but still retaining the power to speak English. At the second battle of Ypres he was struck by a fragment of a shell on the head. He was operated on and lay in the hospital three months, with but little hope of recovery. He finally pulled through, but without the power of understanding any language but English.

Held Alleged "White Slave" In $1,000 Bond

While further investigation is made by the police into the "white slave" charges against Charles W. Grahm of Boston, who was arrested here last night for living upon the earnings of a lewd woman, his case was continued until next Tuesday by Judge F. A. Bartlett in the city court today. The bond was set at $1,000.

Grahm, who is a tinner, was arrested last night when disclosures were made by Margaret Rice, 32 years old, of Danbury, that she had been supporting Grahm. Grahm has been living at 121 Middle street.

Saturday a woman from Boston, posing as Grahm's wife, asked the aid of detectives in locating him as he was said to be living with another woman. He was located by Detective John P. Curry and after being questioned by Lieutenant of Detectives Cronan, they both were allowed to go as they said they were married to each other.

Yesterday afternoon, Grahm, the Boston woman and Miss Rice were taken to headquarters by Sergeant George Benedict and Policeman Patrick Tierney as the Rice woman claimed that the woman from Boston was trying to take Grahm from her. When she had related her story and it was shown that the Boston woman was not his wife, Grahm was locked up.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Irving Leonard of 238 Oak street was fined $10 in the city court today for reckless driving of an automobile. On August 10, he struck David Bader, of 187 Steuben street.

Her left hand caught in a drop press at the plant of the Bridgeport Metal Goods Co., at 1:40 o'clock this morning, the third and fourth fingers on the hand of Susie Banovick of 328 Pine street, were amputated. She was taken to the Bridgeport hos-pital.

While Nils Nelson of 270 Pequon-nock street, slept soundly last night, someone entered his room and took a suitcase from under his bed. In the suitcase were a vest and a shirt, while upon it was a dictionary, a pen-cil, a square and a hand axe.

Stepping from the sidewalk on Broad street near the Bullard Ma-chine Tool Co., this morning, seven year old Jesse Hickson, colored, of Whitting lane, walked into the run-ning board of the automobile op-erated by Frank Bruno of 217 Charles street. The child was taken to the emergency hospital but outside of a bump on his head, suffered no injur-ies.

SAND INDUSTRY

AFFECTED BY WAR.
Washington, Aug. 22—An increase in the quantity of glass sand used in the United States in 1915 over that in 1914 may be explained in part by the activity in the glass industry due to increased exports, a direct effect of the war in Europe. The pro-duction of glass sand in 1915 was val-ued at $1,608,640. This is the largest quantity ever reported by the United States Geological Survey.
